About Melissa Randall

Creator and Host of Baking with Melissa

Melissa fell in love with cooking and baking at a very early age. Some of her earliest and fondest memories are of her mother and grandmother cooking and baking in the kitchen with her. Melissa loved spending time in the kitchen because it connected her to family.

Melissa founded Baking with Melissa in 2011 to help create these lifelong memories with today's kids and their families! Bringing happiness to children!

Melissa also has extensive experience in front of the camera. Featured on the Hallmark Channel, Lifetime Network, eHow.com, Bumble Bee Tuna, Holland America ships, and more!

Hosts cooking and baking shows at live events in the Los Angeles area such as LA Cookie Con, Orange County Fair, and Cake Expo. Featured in numerous magazines, radio shows, and more!

Melissa has worked with children for over 20 years; overseeing enrichment programs, teaching at summer camps, and teaching at prestigious acting schools.

Melissa brings her amazing energy to all her work, including sharing her passion with underprivileged and homeless kids and teens as a volunteer for non-profit organizations such as Children of the Night, Coach Art, and others.

About Baking with Melissa

Baking with Melissa produces unforgettable cooking and baking parties for kids and teens in the Los Angeles area! She brings the fun and a unique experience to every party! She teaches the fundamentals of cooking and baking in a very entertaining way. Incorporating science, math, and reading, she builds every child's confidence by encouraging creativity and decision-making, leaving every child with a beautiful creation they have proudly created on their own.

Baking with Melissa has been featured on popular TV shows like the Hallmark Channel's Home and Family Show and Lifetime Network's Supermarket Superstar.

Happiness!

"There is nothing like the sparkle in a child's eye when they feel they've accomplished something great! Spending time with your kids in the kitchen is a fun and easy way to connect and create memories to last a lifetime!"

Memories!
